- Benjamin F: We need to keep in mind the cost.
- Hyon Chu YB: A part of our own tradition, there's a reason why a lot of companies, for example, that they actually send many of their employees to these conferences so that they can get the latest training. It is both for them to get the training and the information and the knowledge to come back, to be able to bring it then back to the organization to help enhance the work that we do.

- Izat R: The ongoing goals should be something that we can discuss of things we want to have right now

- Yes, you can find what they are funding online, but you can still reach out to them and ask them for essential services they are funding, budget spreadsheets, to compile it into a spreadsheet and present it.
- We should really target is tutorial services, athletics, and the classified payroll like which colleges are paying for your own advisor, who's paying for their own dentist right?
- Hyon Chu YB: 45 minutes meeting, should have an active role in this meeting. This should be a round table instead of a presentation.

Burning Issues/Questions

- Amy H: The executive advisor committee would like to replace 3 committee meetings with 2 committee meetings and a project.

- Benjamin F: An overview of what the finance committee does.
- Javier G: 3 meetings should be kept for interns to show commitment and add a quiz.
